FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Haverhill, Massachusetts (August 22, 2011) Adamson Industries Corp., a leading provider of public safety vehicle equipment and installation services is pleased to offer a brand new product from Setina, heavy gauge door skins. A secure and durable solution for the rear passenger doors of the latest police vehicles.

Benefits and Features

The new door skins from Setina are easy to install, they fit over existing hardware! It is no longer necessary to remove interior door panel hardware. Ideal for effective pathogen and contraband control. Easy, quick clean-up. Exceeds NHTSA fire retardant specs.

Pricing and Availability

Setina's door skins are currently available for the 2011 Dodge Charger and the 2011 Chevy Caprice. The 2013 Next Generation Police Interceptor sedan model will be ready when vehicles become available. Door skins are sold as a pair for the low price of $209.95. Buy 10 or more and the price lowers to $199.95 a pair. Order on the web at www.adamsonindustries.com or call toll free 800.232.0162.
