FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Haverhill, Massachusetts (April 7, 2011) Adamson Industries Corp., a leading provider of public safety vehicle equipment and installation services, introduces the ezVault by Secure Logic. A compact and easy to install safe that includes a remote control and keypad entry.

The ezVault gives you peace of mind in your auto, home or office. The ezVault can be installed almost anywhere; under a bed, desk, in the garage, you name it. The ezVault has quick remote control entry with a range of 30 feet. The remote control can be stored in a hidden location or can be used to gain access to your belongings with a keypad entry design. This allows for quick release of the sliding door, revealing the storage compartment. The ezVault makes sure your identity and important documents are safe and secure at home or on the go!

Benefits and features of the ezVault: Remote control and glow in the dark keypad entry with immediate access sliding door; built to withstand force entry and a plush interior padding to protect your valuables; battery operated with a hidden backup key entry. Dimensions are 11.2”L x 2.75”H x 9.5”W for the exterior and 8”L x 1.75”H x 8”W for the interior.

Pricing and Availability

The ezVault is available for the low price of $99.95. To purchase, please call 800.232.0162 or visit us on the web at www.adamsonindustries.com.
